

CEMETERY CHIEFS DISMISS FOREMAN

They Think Him Perhaps a Dangerous Man.

SAYS "HE KNEW TOO MUCH"

Committee Appointed at Meeting of Lot Holders Will Push Investigation Promptly.

Further developments in the Rock Creek Cemetery controversy have resulted in the summary dismissal of the foreman, Charles L. Myers, who was called upon by the superintendent and told that his services were no longer wanted.
Foreman Myers says that the cause for his discharge was because he "knew too much." "They thought I was a dangerous man to have around the place," he said, "because in my capacity as director of the workmen I had discovered too much crookedness."

Will Push Matters.
"We shall push this matter to an investigation," it was said yesterday by members of a committee appointed by the mass meeting of lot owners on Friday night to wait on the Rev. Dr. Buck, pastor of St. Paul's Church. It was further stated that the committee was now organized and would soon make a report as to the result of their investigations to another meeting of lot owners to be held at the Riggs House. At the first meeting it was declared that legal steps to compel the cemetery authorities to "recognize their rights" would be taken by the lot owners unless they obtained satisfaction through the investigation now asked for.

WOMAN DROVE VOTERS TO POLLS

Hitched Up a Team and Carried Her Sisters From Their Homes to Voting Place.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 25.—Mrs. Nora Gault, of Centerville Station township, Ill., played an important part in the recent school election of her district.
Under the laws of Illinois women are permitted to vote at school elections, but these elections are always held on Saturday, women's busiest day. Many women desirous of voting dislike to leave their work and go long distances to the polls, which is necessary in the district where Mrs. Gault lives.

Interest in the election in Mrs.
Gault's district was intense, as the opposing candidates were a Sunday school teacher and a man who favored the saloon. Mrs. Gault determined that the women should vote. To help them do so she hitched up her team and made trips to and from the schoolhouse where the election was held. She drove at such speed that the women were not kept long from their work. Her candidate was elected.

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA GIVES EVENING CONCERT

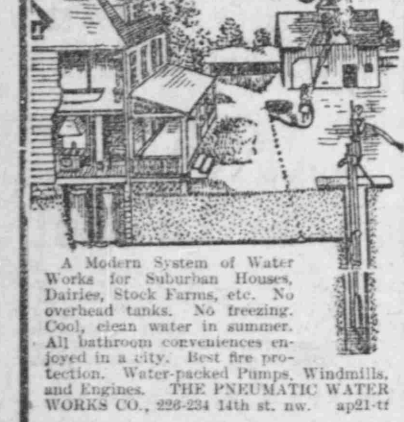

Miss King and Miss Muller Soloists.
Interesting Program.

The regular Sunday night concert by the Washington Symphony Orchestra was given last night at Chase's Theater.
The customary overture was Suppe's "Leichte Cavallerie," and a series of other interesting numbers made up the program. Johann Strauss' popular waltz, "Wiener Blut" was among the gems of the program, and Massenet's "Virgin's Prayer" and the Moszkowski group won hearty recalls. Two soloists assisted the orchestra. They were Miss King, violin, and Miss Muller, soprano.
Interpretation of the symphony, Romantine, and Miss Muller, soprano, whose singing of the Jewish song from "Faust" were the most popular numbers on the program.

DIVORCES EASY IN JAPAN.

TOKYO, April 25.—A statistical pamphlet states that a Japanese may divorce his wife for talking too much.
The latest annual figures show that with fewer than 300,000 Japanese marriages reported in the year, there were more than 55,000 divorces.

Lone Fisherman Fights; Put Whale to Flight

Salt Water Disciple of Walton, With Reputation for Veracity, Spins a Weird Yarn of a Sea Leviathan.

NORFOLK, Va., April 25.—Jerry Daniels, a shad fisherman of Manteo, N. C., reports a thrilling battle with a whale to the south of Hatteras. Daniels, after fighting three-quarters of an hour, says he succeeded in putting the monster to flight.

Daniels, who owns a smack, had just finished his haul, and was making for port when to the stern of the vessel he saw the whale bearing down on him. He mouth of the big fish wide open. He spread all sail and headed for deep water, with the whale in pursuit, madly lashing the water.

The fisherman, when the whale was in reach, seized a bathhook and dealt the leviathan a terrific blow over the head.
The whale, undaunted, showed fight, but he worsted the big fish, which disappeared beneath the surface.

Daniels was exhausted at the conclusion of the battle. He says the whale was some seventy-five feet in length.
Schools of whales were sighted last week off Virginia Beach headed north.
Daniels' reputation for veracity is said to be of the best.

BOYS SENT HOME AT REQUEST OF PARENTS

Two Young Men Who Obtained Work Taken by Detectives on Information From Jersey City.

After spending the night in the House of Detention for Juveniles, Richard Waldon and Calvin Curtis, seventeen years old, who stoutly maintained that they were men and fully competent to look out for themselves, were taken back to their homes in Jersey City this morning. Curtis went by himself, but Waldon was taken in charge by his brother-in-law, Mr. O'Sullivan, of Jersey City.

The three left Washington on the 10 o'clock train.

Detectives Tyser and Weedon arrested the youngsters yesterday on complaint of their parents. The lads reached Washington on Saturday morning and went to work at different places before they had been in the city five hours.

They obtained a room at 320 Thirteenth Street southwest, and paid one month's rent in advance.

When they were taken into custody they had gold watches and sufficient money to keep them from want for some time. They pleaded with the detectives to let them go, as they were able to take care of themselves, but the detectives had conflicting requests from the parents of the runaway and did not release them despite their pleas.

HUSTLING ORLANDO WOULD WED INDIAN

Asks for Addresses of Dusky Maidens.

WANTS SOME ONE TO LOVE

Aged Sixty Years, But Has Record as a Producer of Wealth.

MUSKOGEE, I. T., April 25.—Orlando Hand, a farmer of Bridgehampton, Long Island, who says that he is sixty years old, is a "hustler." Last year he raised 10,000 bushels of Irish potatoes, 3,000 bushels of turnips, and 1,000 bushels of corn, and keeps twenty cows. He has been postmaster, and does not drink, swear or smoke. He wants the Indian officials to send him the names of two or three likely Indian maidens and give him a letter to one who will answer it. He says that above all things he wants a woman who would love him and make him happy.

The reply to Mr. Hand's letter said that with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, such men as Mr. Hand might find a home in the Territory.
The "agency" was not a matrimonial bureau, yet it was probable he could find everything he wanted here.

LEGISLATORS' LARK TERRIFIES WOMEN

Teachers Find Sleeping Apartments Invaded.

IN SOLDIERS' ORPHANS' HOME

Embryo Ohio Statesmen Douse Women, Laugh, and Flee Into Darkness.

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, April 25.—A party of Ohio legislators who visited the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home, at Xenia, are busy explaining their pranks while at that institution.
The committee on homes went to Xenia to inspect the institution. After the older members of the party had retired the younger men started on a frolic in true college boy style.

The legislators hid themselves in the quarters of the teachers. A terrified young woman, awakened from a sound sleep by a dash of ice water in the face, opened her eyes and saw a man bending over her. The visitor laughed and a moment later he was gone. Two girls in one room feigned sound sleep, though couched with ice water, and flew to their door as soon as their tormentors had gone to get more water.

"Imagine a girl sleeping in a place where a man never enters," said one of the teachers, "a place where it is considered so safe that we never even lock the doors; imagine her waking in the dead of the night and finding a man throwing water on her. She would be scared even if the man were a member of the Ohio Legislature."

The young women were all in a state of terror. There are thirteen rooms occupied by teachers, two of whom occupy each room, and it is said that about half of these rooms are entered by the exuberant visitors.

Gen. Charles Young says: "The officials of the home look upon the affair as simply a boys' lark, and the officials were in no way responsible for the actions of their visitors."
